Amazing ppt templates

When it comes to presentation software, PowerPoint is perhaps the most famous. Since its debut in 1987, Powerpoint has grown to more than 500 million users and is the force behind an estimated 30 million presentations per day! And while some consider PowerPoint somewhat outdated, many others continue to enjoy the familiarity and ease of use the program is so famous for. It's also sometimes the only choice if you're with a company that uses the Microsoft tools. But with widespread appeal comes a problem: with so many PowerPoint presentations out there in the world, how do you make yours stand out? For an unforgettable and eye-catching presentation design, you need to go beyond the standard themes within PowerPoint itself and continue to search for inspiration. Fortunately, a quick online search will give you thousands of options that raise the next challenge: how do you choose which one suits you? To help you, we have rounded up the best of SlidesCarnival and grouped by industry. From marketing templates to educational-enabled designs, these free PowerPoint templates may be just what you're looking for. Best PowerPoint templates for business presentations There are a number of considerations to consider when creating a company presentation. First, it needs to look polished and professional. And for this, you need a design that exudes real confidence; presenting information in a clean, organised way. Second, you need a template that can be easily manipulated to meet your company's brand guidelines. The ability to add your brand logo and company color scheme, for example, is key to any professional presentation. And finally, you want to stay away from super intense color combinations, beautiful fonts or designs that distract from your content. Professionalism is key, and it is simplicity that will help to communicate that best. Finding a template that ticks all those boxes can be tricky, so here's a shortlist of our favorite PowerPoint business themes: Free business Powerpoint template with photos This is a perfect template for business content. Best PowerPoint Templates for Education Summarize The Best Educational Presentations two words: informative and inspiring. But if you think 'informative' means full of text - think again! A pared back design style, with only a handful of words on each chart, can actually support learning much more than an overworked slide with hundreds of words to sift through! After all, how inspiring is it to sit by slide after slide of dense text? If you do, try to keep it to 3 or 4 bullet points per slide and use lots of images to support your lesson plan. In addition, depending on the age of children you teach, you may need to use your presentation deck to break up the session and revitalize your audience. Including fun, pop quizzes halfway through, or visual puzzles to solve, everyone will be hanging on for more! We get it: this all sounds like a lot of hard work, doesn't it? And as a teacher, we'll guess you're pretty tied up for the time. This list of free, ready-to-use Powerpoint themes will help you create engaging educational presentations in no time: Free sketchnotes Powerpoint theme for education Put together an educational presentation in minutes with this easily customizable theme. With its hand drawn school icons and bright colors it will keep the kids attention in your lesson. Use this template in your next class or if you need to give a presentation about teaching. Free Powerpoint template with colored pencils This vibrant template has a colorful design to make each slide stand out. The colored pencils that appear on each slide make this design perfect to attract the attention of younger children. Besides, change the colors of the theme and see how to adjust the colors of the pencils! Free arty Powerpoint template with watercolors Get creative with your presentation using this arty template. It uses watercolor textures to create bold and vibrant slides, while the text content keeps a minimal and clean style. Talk about creativity, art, DIY or craft projects... Free fun and playful Powerpoint template This presentation theme has a cheerful and cute design, great to keep the attention of a young (very young) audience. The text bubble conveys an informal style and with the extra set of children's illustrations you choose the character that each slide is going to present. It's a really fun template to use for teaching presentations, especially for those who miss the days of old school. Best PowerPoint Templates for Marketing There's a Popular Saying in Marketing: You Should sell, not the sausage. Essentially, marketing is all about promoting the emotional crochet of a product or service. It's not so much about what you benefit from being a customer, but how you feel. And the fastest to create those much needed hisses? By suggestive design. This applies whether you are commissioning new packaging or producing a sales and marketing presentation deck. The way you box up your post is almost more important than what you actually say! Maybe you'll present sales results to a customer or share an internal success story with your team. You even join the lineup for an industry conference (in which case you are looking for new partners). No matter what the purpose of your marketing presentation, it should look as good as the news it delivers. In practice, modern, sleek designs do a great job. But you also want a template that supports visual aids, such as charts and tables, as well as large, bold images or illustrations. Don't forget to apply your company's colour palette and visual brand language. Bring all this together, and your presentation will sizzle in no time! To get you started, these are our favorite free PowerPoint templates for marketing decks: Free digital marketing Powerpoint template Download this free template to present your content as a professional.
